Kübra Satılmış

Full Stack Web Developer

Profile

I am open to research, learning and development. I have been developing myself with various courses and trainings in the web field for more than 3 years and I have been applying the knowledge I have gained by making different projects. I attach importance to working in a team, planned and programmed progress. I haven't had any professional experience yet. My goal is to get a job where I can apply the knowledge I have gained and add new knowledge to myself. I am currently continuing the .NET - Angular Full Stack Web Developer training conducted by Istanbul Kodluyor and Enocta.
